Beneficiaries of Activity from Community

- Physically and mentally disabled children and adults in Dhrangadhra
- Families who were unaware of government schemes and eligibility criteria
- Community members who gained better awareness about inclusion
- NGO, which received updated and structured data for follow-up action

Identification of the problems associated with the concerned NGO

- Lack of awareness about disability benefits and available schemes.
- Many individuals did not have a disability card or knew how to apply for one.
- Stigma and social exclusion still prevalent in certain areas.
- Some families were hesitant to come forward or lacked documentation.
- The NGO had limited manpower to cover large areas for outreach.

Technical Solution proposed

- Recommended creation of a digital database to maintain records of disabled individuals in the town.
- Suggested collaboration with local government offices for faster processing of disability cards.
- Proposed simplified pamphlets or posters in local language to educate families.
- Use of WhatsApp groups to send reminders and updates about schemes.
- Encourage involving school/college volunteers in data collection and awareness drives.

Impact of Activity for Societal Benefit

- Direct support to over 80+ families in identifying and applying for disability benefits.
- Helped raise awareness in the community about government schemes.
- Strengthened the NGO's outreach efforts with updated data.
- Reduced misinformation and stigma among people about disabilities.
- Empowered families to take further steps towards formal support and inclusion.

Conclusion

- This community service was a deeply humbling and eye-opening experience.
- I learned the importance of fieldwork, compassion, and clear communication while working with sensitive communities.
- Every interaction helped me understand the struggles and resilience of specially-abled individuals.
- I'm proud to have contributed meaningfully by connecting more than 80 people to possible government support.
- I hope to continue supporting inclusive practices and social awareness in any way I can.
